Investment Portfolio Policy Changes

Mar/14/2007

Portfolio ABC Stock and CDE Results:

Returns on both of these two investments proved to weaker than expected. A relatively flat gain was the result as can be seen on the graph below.

Long term growth potential is forecasted to be steady and we expect to see a strong growth by year-end. Performance of comparable Stocks in this category are down 15.3% on ave over the same period. In light of this these two stocks performed well above average.
